- (c) headings do not affect the construction of this Constitution;

- (d) if a word or phrase is defined cognate words and phrases have corresponding meanings;
- (e) references to notices in this Constitution include not only formal notices of meetings but also all documents and other communications from the Company to its Members but do not include cheques;
- (f) Division 10 of Part 1.2 of the Act applies in relation to this Constitution as if it was an instrument made under that Act as in force on the day when this Constitution becomes binding on the Company; and
- (g) an expression used in a particular Part or Division of the Act that is given by that Part or Division a special meaning for the purposes of that or any other Part or Division has, in any of this Constitution that deals with a matter dealt with by the relevant Part or Division, the same meaning as applies in or in respect of that Part or Division.

2.3. Replaceable Rules

Each of the provisions of the sections or sub-sections of the Act which would but for this clause 2.3 apply to the Company as a replaceable rule within the meaning of the Act are displaced and do not apply to the Company except insofar as they are repeated in this Constitution.

3. Objects and powers

- (a) The objects for which the Company is established are:
 - (i) to promote excellence in local government
 - (ii) to advocate on behalf of Members
 - (iii) to support the exchange of information and collaboration between all Members;
 - to promote the development, advancement and improvement of local government management in Australia
 - (iv) to promote ethical practice by prescribing standards of professional behaviour to be observed by local government professionals;
- (b) Subject to clause 3(c) and the Act, the Company has the legal capacity, and the rights, powers and privileges of a natural person.
- (c) The Company may do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the objects and the exercise of the powers of the Company.

4. Application of Income and Property

- (a) The income and property of the Company howsoever derived shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects of the Company as set forth in this Constitution and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend bonus or otherwise howsoever by way of profit to a Member PROVIDED THAT nothing herein contained shall prevent the payment in good faith of:

- (i) remuneration to any officers or servants of the Company or to any Member in return for any services actually rendered to the Company nor for goods supplied in the ordinary and usual course of business;
 - (ii) the payment of interest at a rate not exceeding interest at the rate for the time being charged by Bankers in Melbourne for overdrawn accounts on money lent; or
 - (iii) reasonable and proper rent for premises demised, let or licensed by any Member to the Company.
- (b) All other payments by the Company to the Directors shall be approved by the Directors.

5. Winding-up

- (a) Each Member undertakes to contribute to the assets of the Company in the event of it being wound up while the Member is a member or within 12 months after the Member ceases to be a Member for:
- (i) payment of the debts and liabilities of the Company (contracted before the Member ceased to be a Member); and
 - (ii) the costs and charges of such winding up,
- such amount as may be required but not exceeding $100.
- (b) If upon the winding up or dissolution of the Company there remains after satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities any property or assets, the property or assets must be given or transferred to some other institution or institutions having objects similar to the objects of the Company . Such institution or institutions will be determined by the Members at or before the time of dissolution or in default of such determination by such Judge of the Supreme Court of Victoria as may have or acquire jurisdiction in the matter.

6. Membership

6.1. Members

6.2. Eligibility for Membership

- (a) In addition to the Members set out in clause 6.1, membership is open to Australian incorporated entities with objects similar to those of the Company.
- (b) An application for Membership must be:
 - (i) in writing and in the form determined by the Directors; and
 - (ii) accompanied by any application fee determined by the Directors.
- (c) The Directors determine whether to accept or reject an application for Membership having regard to any criteria for Membership determined by the Directors from time to time.
- (d) The Directors are not required to give any reason for the rejection of an application for Membership.
- (e) If an application for Membership is accepted, the Company must:
 - (i) give written notice of the acceptance to the applicant;
 - (ii) request payment of the annual and other fees under clause 8 (being a pro rata sum if so determined by the Directors); and
 - (iii) upon payment of the above fees, enter the applicant's name in the Register.
- (f) If an application for Membership is rejected, the Company must:
 - (i) give written notice of the rejection to the applicant; and
 - (ii) refund in full any fees paid by the applicant.

6.3. No transfer of Membership

The rights and privileges of Membership are not transferable.

7. Termination of Membership

7.1. Resignation of a Member

A Member who has paid all moneys due and payable by that Member to the Company may resign from the Company by giving at least 6 months notice in writing to the Secretary. Upon the expiration of that period of notice, the Member ceases to be a member of the Company. Any Member intending to resign from the Company may withdraw its notice of resignation prior to the expiration of that period of notice.

7.2. Removal of a Member

- (a) Subject to this Constitution, the Directors may by resolution terminate the membership of a Member if the Directors determine that the Member:
- (i) has refused or neglected to comply with this Constitution, any By-Laws or a reasonable direction of the Directors;
 - (ii) has engaged in conduct that is or could reasonably be considered as likely to be prejudicial to the interests of the Company;
 - (iii) no longer complies with Membership criteria prescribed by the Directors from time to time; or
 - (iv) is insolvent, goes into liquidation or has an external administrator, receiver or manager appointed pursuant to the Act.
- (b) A resolution of the Board under clause 7.2(a) does not take effect unless the Directors, at a meeting held not earlier than 14 and not later than 28 days after the service on the Member of a notice under clause 7.2(c) confirms the resolution in accordance with this clause.
- (c) Where the Directors pass a resolution under clause 7.2(a), the Secretary shall, as soon as practicable, cause to be served on the Member a notice in writing:
- (i) setting out the resolution of the Directors and the grounds on which it is based;
 - (ii) stating that the Member may address the Directors at a meeting to be held not earlier than 14 days and not later than 28 days after the service of the notice;
 - (iii) stating the date, place and time of that meeting;
 - (iv) informing the Member that the Member may do one or more of the following:
 - (A) attend that meeting; and/or
 - (B) give to the Directors before the date of that meeting a written statement seeking the revocation of the resolution; and
- (d) At a meeting of the Directors held in accordance with clause 7.2(b), the Board:
- (i) shall give to the Member an opportunity to be heard;

- (ii) shall give due consideration to any written statement submitted by the Member; and
- (iii) shall by resolution determine whether to confirm or to revoke the resolution.

8. Fees and Subscriptions

- (a) The annual fee for Membership will be determined by the Directors from time to time and will be payable in advance by each Member on or before the first day of each Membership Year or at such other time as the Directors from time to time determine. The Directors will notify existing Members of the annual fee at least one month prior to the start of the next Membership Year.
- (b) The Directors may from time to time require each Member to pay an annual fee based on the number of members of each Member or on such other basis as the Directors may determine, and each Member will be liable to pay such amount on demand; and
- (c) The Directors may from time to time set a special fee or fees payable by Members as the Directors determine.
- (d) Any Member whose fees under this clause are outstanding for more than 3 months after the due date ceases to be a Member. However the Directors may reinstate such a person's Membership on any terms it thinks fit.

9. Register of Members

The Secretary must keep and maintain a Register of Members in which will be entered the full name, address, telephone and facsimile numbers and the date of entry of the name of each Member, together with the full name and date of appointment of each Representative. The Register of Members will be available for inspection and copying for use only by Members upon request.

10. Associates

10.1. International associates

Natural persons resident overseas may apply to become an overseas associate of the Company.

10.2. Corporate associates

An incorporated entity may apply to become a corporate associate of the Company.

10.3. Applications for Associateship

- (a) An application under clause 10.1 or 10.2 must be:
 - (i) in writing or in the form determined by the Directors; and
 - (ii) accompanied any application fee determined by the Directors.

- (b) The Directors determine whether to accept or reject an application for Associateship having regard to any criteria for Associateship determined by the Directors from time to time.
- (c) The Directors are not required to give a reason for the rejection of an application for Associateship.
- (d) Subject to paying any relevant application fee or annual fee determined by the Directors from time to time, Associates shall have such rights and privileges as may be determined by the Directors from time to time provided however, Associates are not entitled to attend any general meeting of Members or to vote on any resolution of Members.
- (e) The rights and privileges Associateship are not transferrable.

11. General Meetings of Members

11.1. Annual general meeting

The Company must hold an annual general meeting in accordance with the Act.

11.2. Attending general meetings

The following persons may attend and be given the opportunity to be heard at general meetings of Members including annual general meetings:

- (a) Representatives
- (b) members of the Members
- (c) such other persons as the Chairperson directs.

11.3. Power to convene general meeting

Any 3 Directors may at any time convene a general meeting of the Members.

11.4. Calling of general meeting when requested by Members

- (a) The Directors must call and arrange to hold a general meeting on the request of any 4 Members, and otherwise on the request of Members as required under the Act.
- (b) The request must:
 - (i) be in writing; and
 - (ii) state any resolution to be proposed at the meeting; and
 - (iii) be signed by a Representative of the Member making the request; and
 - (iv) be given to the Company.

11.5. Notice period

- (a) Subject to the Act and clause 11.5(d), the Company must give at least 21 days notice of general meetings (including annual general meetings).
- (b) The Company may call a general meeting on shorter notice than that specified in clause 11.5(a) if all the Members entitled to vote at the general meeting agree prior to the general meeting.
- (c) At least 120 days prior to the annual general meeting Members shall be requested to submit any items of business for inclusion in the notice for that meeting.
- (d) Notwithstanding clause 11.5(a), the Company must give at least 60 days notice of Special Resolutions to be submitted to annual general meetings.

11.6. Notice of general meetings

Written notice of a general meeting:

- (a) must be given as provided in this Constitution to:
 - (i) every Member;
 - (ii) every Member's Representative;
 - (iii) every Director;
 - (iv) the Auditor; and
 - (v) any other person required by law to receive such notice.
- (b) may be given at the Directors' discretion, to all members of Members.

11.7. Content of notice of general meetings

A notice of a general meeting must:

- (a) specify the place, date and time for the meeting;
- (b) state the general nature of the meeting's business;
- (c) if a special resolution is to be proposed at the meeting, set out an intention to propose the special resolution and state the resolution; and
- (d) contain a statement that:
 - (i) the Member has the right to appoint a proxy; and
 - (ii) the proxy need not be a Member.

11.8. Notice of adjourned meeting

When a general meeting is adjourned, new notice of the resumed meeting must be given if the meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more.

11.9. Failure to give notice

Any resolution passed at a general meeting is not invalidated by the accidental omission to give notice of the meeting to any Member or non-receipt of that notice by a Member.

12. Proceedings at General Meetings

12.1. Circulating resolutions

- (a) A resolution may be passed without a general meeting being held if all Members entitled to vote on the resolution sign a document containing a statement that they are in favour of the resolution set out in the document. A Representative may sign such a circulating resolution on behalf of the Member.
- (b) Separate identical copies of the document may be distributed for signing by Members and taken together will constitute one and the same document.
- (c) The resolution is passed when the last Member signs the document.
- (d) A resolution passed in accordance with clauses 12.1(a) to 12.1(c) satisfies any requirement in this Constitution or the Act that the resolution be passed at a general meeting.

12.2. Use of technology

The Company may hold a general meeting at two or more venues using any technology that gives Members and Representatives a reasonable opportunity to participate.

12.3. Quorum

- (a) No business may be transacted at a meeting of Members unless a quorum is present (by proxy or Representative) at all times during the meeting.
- (b) A quorum is a majority of Members present (by proxy or Representative).
- (c) In determining whether a quorum is present:
 - (i) if a Member has appointed more than one proxy or Representative, count only one of them;
 - (ii) if an individual is attending both as a proxy or Representative, count that individual only once.

12.4. Effect of no quorum

If a quorum is not present within half an hour after the time appointed for the meeting in the notice:

- (a) if the meeting was convened on the requisition of Members, the meeting must be dissolved; or
- (b) in any other case:

- (i) the meeting will be adjourned to the date, time and place that the Directors specify (or if the Directors do not specify such details, the meeting is adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place) except that if the meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, notice of the resumed meeting must be given; and
- (ii) if at a meeting resumed pursuant to clause 12.4(b)(i) a quorum is not present within half an hour after the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting must be dissolved.

12.5. Chairperson of general meeting

- (a) The President may preside at every meeting of Members as chairperson.
- (b) If there is no President, or if the President is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting or is unwilling to act, the Deputy President may preside at the meeting as chairperson.
- (c) If there is no Deputy President, or if the Deputy President is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting or is unwilling to act, the Directors present must elect one of their number to preside at the meeting as chairperson.
- (d) If there is no Director present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting and willing to act, the Members present by proxy or Representative must elect a Representative present to preside at the meeting as chairperson.

12.6. Conduct of general meeting

The chairperson:

- (a) has charge of the general conduct of the meeting of Members and of the procedures to be adopted at the meeting;
- (b) may determine any dispute about the admission or rejection of a vote at the meeting (including a vote recorded in a form of proxy);
- (c) may require the adoption of any procedure which is in the chairperson's opinion necessary or desirable for proper and orderly debate or discussion and the proper and orderly casting or recording of votes at the meeting; and
- (d) may terminate discussion or debate on any matter whenever the chairperson considers it necessary or desirable for the proper conduct of the meeting, and a decision by the chairperson under this clause is final.

12.7. Adjournment

- (a) The chairperson of a general meeting at which a quorum is present:
 - (i) may adjourn the meeting to any time and place; and

- (ii) must adjourn the meeting if so directed by the meeting.

12.8. Adjourned meetings

- (a) Only unfinished business is to be transacted at a meeting resumed after an adjournment.
- (b) A resolution passed at a meeting resumed after an adjournment is passed on the day it was in fact passed.

13. Voting at General Meetings

13.1. Voting

- (a) A resolution put to the vote at a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands.
- (b) Before a resolution is put to the vote at a general meeting, the chairperson must inform the meeting whether any proxy votes have been received and how the proxy votes are to be cast
- (c) On a show of hands, a declaration by the chairperson is conclusive evidence of the result provided that the declaration reflects the show of hands. Neither the chairperson nor the minutes need to state the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour or against the resolution.

13.2. Voting rights

- (a) At a general meeting of Members, each Member present (by proxy or Representative) has one vote.
- (b) A proxy for a Member must not vote while a Representative for that Member is present at the meeting.
- (c) A person, who represents more than one Member at the meeting (prox or Representative), has only one vote on a show of hands at the meeting.
- (d) If more than one Representative for the same Member attends the meeting, only one of those Representatives may vote on any resolution put to the meeting.

13.3. Casting vote of chair

In the case of an equality of votes the chairperson of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place has a casting vote (in addition to any vote that the chairperson may have had as a Representative).

13.4. Objection to qualification of a voter

- (a) An objection to a person's right to vote at a general meeting:
 - (i) may only be raised at a general meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered; and
 - (ii) must be determined by the chairperson of the meeting, whose decision is final.

- (b) A vote not disallowed pursuant to an objection referred to in clause 13.4(a) is valid for all purposes.

13.5. Votes counted in error

If any vote is counted which ought not to have been counted or might have been rejected, the error will not invalidate the resolution unless the error is:

- (a) detected at the same meeting; and
- (b) of sufficient magnitude, in the opinion of the chairperson, as to invalidate the resolution.

13.6. Appoint a proxy

- (a) A Member may appoint a proxy to act for the Member for all or specified purposes.
- (b) The proxy need not be a Member. The proxy may be an individual or body corporate.
- (c) An appointment of a proxy is valid if it is signed or authenticated in accordance with regulation 2G.2.01 of the Corporations Regulations 2001 (Cth) by the Member making the appointment and contains the information required by section 250A of the Act. The Directors may determine that the proxy is valid even if it contains only some of that information. An appointment of a proxy may be in the form in Annexure A or any other form approved by the Directors.
- (d) A later appointment of a proxy revokes an earlier one if both appointments could not be validly exercised at the meeting.
- (e) An appointment may specify the way a proxy is to vote on a particular resolution.
- (f) If an appointment of a proxy does not name the proxy, the chairperson may act as proxy or complete the appointment by inserting the name of a Director as proxy.
- (g) The appointment of a proxy (and any authority under which the appointment was signed or authenticated or a certified copy of the authority or other evidence required by the Directors) must be given to the Company at least 48 hours before the meeting of Members or resumed meeting, or any shorter period allowed by the Directors.
- (h) An undated appointment of a proxy is taken to have been dated on the day it is given to the Company.

13.7. Rights of proxies

- (a) If an appointment specifies the way a proxy is to vote on a particular resolution, section 250A(4) of the Act applies.
- (b) Unless otherwise specified in the appointment, the proxy may:
 - (i) agree to a meeting being convened by shorter notice than is required by the Act or this Constitution;

- (ii) even if the appointment specifies how the proxy must vote on a particular resolution:
 - (A) vote on an amendment to the resolution, a motion not to put the resolution or similar motion;
 - (B) vote on a procedural motion, including a motion to elect the chairperson, vacate the chairperson or adjourn the meeting;
- (c) speak at the meeting; and
- (d) vote (but only to the extent allowed by the appointment or the Act or this Constitution).
- (e) A proxy's authority to speak and vote for a Member at a meeting is suspended while the Member is present at the meeting.
- (f) If the proxy is an incorporated entity, it may appoint a Representative under clause 14.

13.8. Validity

- (a) At a meeting of Members, the chairperson's decision as to the validity of an appointment of a proxy or Representative, or the identity of a proxy or Representative, is final.
- (b) Unless the Company has received written notice of the matter before the start or resumption of a meeting, a vote cast by a proxy or Representative is valid even if, before the vote:
 - (i) the appointing Member becomes insolvent or is wound up or deregistered;
 - (ii) the Member revokes the appointment; or
 - (iii) the Member revokes the authority under which the proxy or Representative was appointed.

14. Representatives

- (a) A Member (or a Member's proxy) may appoint an individual as its Representative by notice in writing to the Company. The appointment may be a standing one.
- (b) A Member may appoint more than one Representative but only one Representative may exercise the Member's power at any one time.
- (c) The appointment may set out restrictions on the Representative's powers. If the appointment is to be by reference to a position held, the appointment must identify the position.
- (d) Unless otherwise specified in the appointment, the Representative may exercise all the powers that the body corporate could exercise if it were a natural person at a meeting of Members or in voting on a resolution (including a resolution to be passed without a meeting).

15. Appointment and Removal of Directors

15.1. Qualifications

- (a) A person may be appointed a Director only if the person:
 - (i) is an individual over 18 years of age and otherwise qualified to hold office in accordance with the Act; and
 - (ii) is a director or member of the board or management committee of the Member making the appointment; or
 - (iii) in the absence of a director or member of the board or management committee of the Member making the appointment being able or willing to be appointed a Director, is a member of the Member making the appointment; and
 - (iv) has consented in writing to being a Director.

15.2. Requirement to appoint a Director

Each Member must appoint 1 Director.

15.3. Appointment and retirement of Directors

- (a) The Directors as at the date of the adoption of this Constitution are those persons specified in Annexure B. Subject to clause 15.3(d), at the conclusion of the second annual general meeting after the date of the adoption of this Constitution, half of those Directors, determined by lot (unless otherwise agreed amongst themselves), must retire from office.
- (b) Subject to clause 15.3(d), at the conclusion of each subsequent annual general meeting, half of the Directors must retire from office.
- (c) The Directors to retire under clause 15.3(b) are those who have been longest in office since their last appointment, and as between persons who became Directors on the same day, are determined by lot (unless otherwise agreed amongst themselves).
- (d) If at the time of the retirement of any Directors under clause 15.3(a) or (b) the number of Directors is not a multiple of two, then the number of Directors to retire is rounded down to the nearest whole number.
- (e) A retiring Director is eligible for reappointment under clause 15.2 provided that:
 - (i) no Director may be appointed for more than three consecutive terms of appointment;
 - (ii) any former Director who held office for three consecutive terms of appointment must not be reappointed within 12 months of the expiry of the last of such appointments.

15.4. Instrument of appointment and removal

- (a) Every appointment and removal of a Director by a Member takes effect when notice of that appointment or removal is duly signed by the Member and is received by the Company (accompanied in the case of an appointment, by the written consent of the appointee to act as a Director), or at any later time specified in that notice.
- (b) The requirement to give notice of appointment of the persons specified in clause 15.3(a) as Directors is deemed to have been satisfied and such persons will be deemed to have been appointed as Directors by the Members whose name appears alongside such persons in Annexure B.

15.5. Remuneration

- (a) The Directors do not receive remuneration except that the Company may pay the Directors' travelling and other expenses that they properly incur:
 - (i) in attending meetings of the Directors or any committee of the Directors;
 - (ii) in attending any general meetings of the Company; or
 - (iii) in connection with the business of the Company.
- (b) Any Director who performs special services or goes or resides abroad for any purpose of the Company may be paid such extra remuneration as determined by ordinary resolution of the Company.

15.6. Cessation of Director

A Director will cease to be a director of the Company if the director:

- (a) is prohibited from being a Director by reason of any provision of the Act;
- (b) is removed as a Director in accordance with the Act;
- (c) is removed from office by the appointing Member;
- (d) becomes bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with their creditors generally;
- (e) becomes physically or mentally incapable of performing the Director's duties;
- (f) resigns by written notice to the Company;
- (g) is absent from Directors' meetings (without the Member appointing an Alternate Director) without the consent of the Directors for two consecutive meetings ; or
- (h) is directly or indirectly interested in any contract or proposed contract with the Company and fails to declare the nature of the Director's interest as required by the Act.

16. Powers and Duties of Directors

16.1. General management power

Subject to the Act, this Constitution and any resolution of the Company, the Directors:

- (a) will manage the business of the Company;
- (b) may exercise all such powers of the Company that are not, by the Act or this Constitution, required to be exercised by the Company in general meeting, provided that:
 - (i) no resolution of the Company in general meeting will invalidate any prior act of the Directors which would have been valid if such a resolution had not been made; and
 - (ii) any sale or disposal by the Directors of the Company's core business undertaking will be subject to prior approval by the Company in general meeting ;
- (c) may pay all expenses incurred in promoting the Company.

16.2. Attorneys

- (a) The Directors may, by power of attorney under the Seal, appoint any person or persons to be the attorney or attorneys of the Company with such powers, authorities and discretions (being powers, authorities and discretions vested in or exercisable by the Directors), for such period and subject to such conditions as they think fit.
- (b) Any such power of attorney may contain provisions for the protection and convenience of persons dealing with the attorney and may also authorise the attorney to delegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions vested in the attorney.

16.3. Other offices of Directors

Subject to the Act, a Director may hold any other office or offices under the Company (except that of auditor) in conjunction with the office of Director and on such terms as to remuneration and otherwise as the Directors may approve.

16.4. Director may act in professional capacity

- (a) Subject to the Act and clause 16.4(b), any Director (or the Director's organisation) may act in a professional capacity for the Company and the Director (or the Director's organisation) is entitled to remuneration for professional services as if the Director were not a Director.
- (b) A Director (or the Director's organisation) must not act as the Company's auditor.

17. Proceedings of Directors

17.1. Calling and holding Directors' meetings

At any time a Directors' meeting may be called by no less than 3 Directors giving reasonable notice to each Director.

17.2. Circulating Resolutions

- (a) The Directors may pass a resolution without holding a Directors' meeting if all the Directors entitled to vote on the resolution sign a document containing a statement that they are in favour of the resolution set out in the document.
- (b) Separate identical copies of the document may be distributed for signing by Directors and taken together will constitute one and the same document.
- (c) The resolution is passed when the last Director signs the document.

17.3. Telephone and other meetings

Without limiting the power of the Directors to regulate their meetings as they think fit, a meeting of Directors or committee of Directors may be held where one or more of the Directors is not physically present at the meeting but attend via telephone or other technology, provided that:

- (a) all Directors consent to the calling and the holding of the meeting by means of telephone or other form of communication. The consent may be a standing one and a Director may only withdraw their consent prior to the subject meeting or meetings;
- (b) all Directors participating in the meeting are able to communicate with each other effectively, simultaneously and instantaneously by means of the agreed form of communication;
- (c) notice of the meeting is given to all the Directors entitled to notice in accordance with the usual procedures agreed on or laid down from time to time by the Directors and such notice does not specify that Directors are required to be present in person;
- (d) in the event that a failure in communications prevents clause 17.3(b) from being satisfied by a quorum of Directors, then the meeting will be suspended until clause 17.3(b) is satisfied again. If clause 17.3(b) is not satisfied within 15 minutes from the time the meeting was interrupted, the meeting will be deemed to have terminated; and
- (e) any meeting held where one or more of the Directors is not physically present will be deemed to be held at the location specified in the notice of meeting provided a Director is present at that location. If no Director is present at the location specified, the meeting will be deemed to be held at the location where the chairperson of the meeting is located.

17.4. Resolutions of the Directors

- (a) Subject to the Act and clause 17.4(c), each Director has one vote.

- (b) Subject to this Constitution, a resolution of the Directors at a Directors' meeting must be passed by a majority of the votes of Directors present and entitled to vote on the resolution.
- (c) In case of an equality of votes, the chairperson of the meeting, in addition to the Chairperson's deliberative vote (if any), has a casting vote.

17.5. Minutes

- (a) The Directors must cause minutes to be made of:
 - (i) all appointments of Directors, Alternate Directors and officers;
 - (ii) the names of the Directors present at each meeting of the Directors;
 - (iii) all orders made by the Directors;
 - (iv) all declarations made or notices given by any Director (either generally or specifically) of their interest in any contract or proposed contract or of their holding of any office or property whereby any conflict of duty or interest may arise; and
 - (v) all resolutions and proceedings of all general meetings and meetings of Directors, and retain the minutes in a minute book for a period of at least 10 years or such other period as may be required under the Act.

- (b) The minutes of a meeting must be signed by the chairperson of the meeting or the chairperson of the next meeting.
- (c) In the absence of evidence to the contrary, contents of the minute book that is recorded and signed in accordance with this clause 17.5 is evidence of the matters shown in the minute.

17.6. Director's personal interests

- (a) If a Director has a material personal interest in a matter that relates to the affairs of the Company (other than an interest that does not have to be disclosed under section 191(2) of the Act) the Director must give the Board notice of the nature and extent of the interest and its relation to the affairs of the Company, as soon as practicable after the Director becomes aware of their interest in the matter.
- (b) Except as permitted by the Act, at a meeting of the Directors at which there is considered any contract or proposed contract or arrangement in which a Director has a direct or indirect material personal interest, the Director must not:
 - (i) vote on the matter; or
 - (ii) be present while the matter is being considered.
- (c) If notice of the interest is given in accordance with clause 17.6(a) and the matter is voted on in accordance with clause 17.6(b) then:

- (i) any transactions that relate to the interest may proceed; and
- (ii) if the disclosure is made before the transaction is entered into:
 - (A) the Director may retain benefits under the transaction even though the Director has the interest; and
 - (B) the Company cannot avoid the transaction merely because of the existence of the interest.
- (d) If the provisions of this clause and the Act are observed by a Director with regard to any contract or arrangement in which the Director is in any way interested, the fact that the Director signs, affixes or witnesses the affixing of a Seal to the document evidencing the contract or arrangement does not in any way affect its validity.

17.7. Quorum

- (a) At a meeting of Directors properly convened, the number of Directors whose presence is necessary to constitute a quorum is a majority of Directors or such other number as is determined from time to time by the Directors.
- (b) If the office of a Director becomes vacant, the remaining Directors may act but, if the total number of remaining Directors is not sufficient to constitute a quorum at a meeting of Directors, the Directors may act only for the purpose of convening a general meeting of the Company.

17.8. President and Deputy President

- (a) No sooner than 4 months before each annual general meeting, the Directors will elect from their number a President and Deputy President who will hold office from the conclusion of that annual general meeting until the conclusion of the following annual general meeting.
- (b) A retiring President or Deputy President is eligible for reappointment or re-election.
- (c) Nominations for office of an President or Deputy President are made in the manner determined by the Directors.
- (d) If there is only one nomination for the office of an President or Deputy President, the nominee stands appointed to such office.
- (e) If there is more than one nomination for the office of an President or Deputy President, then there must be an election for such office conducted by secret ballot.
- (f) The office of any President or Deputy President becomes vacant if the President or Deputy President:
 - (i) reaches the end of their term of such office;
 - (ii) resigns from such office by notice in writing to the Directors;
 - (iii) is removed from such office by resolution of the Directors; or

- (iv) ceases to be a Director.
- (g) Should a vacancy occur in the office of any President or Deputy President, the Directors must promptly fill such vacancy by appointment from among their number.
- (h) The President shall be the ceremonial representative and official spokesman of the Board. The Deputy President shall perform the role of President when called upon by the President to do so and when required by circumstances.

17.9. Chairperson

- (a) The President may preside at all Directors' meetings as chairperson.
- (b) If there is no President, or if the President is not present within 10 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting or is unable or unwilling to act, the Deputy President may preside at the meeting as chairperson.
- (c) If there is no Deputy President, or if the Deputy President is not present within 10 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting or is unable or unwilling to act, the Directors present must elect one of their number to preside at the meeting as chairperson.

17.10. Immediate Past President

If the Immediate Past President is not a Director he may attend all Board meetings but is not entitled to vote on any matter being considered at such Board meetings.

17.11. Delegation to committees

- (a) The Directors may delegate any of their powers to a committee or committees consisting of any number of them and such other persons as the Directors from time to time think fit.
- (b) A committee must exercise the powers delegated to it in accordance with any directions of the Directors. The effect of the committee exercising a power in this way is the same as if it had been exercised by the Directors.
- (c) The members of a committee may elect one of their number as chairperson of their meetings.
- (d) Where a meeting of a committee is held and:
 - (i) a chairperson has not already been elected to chair that meeting pursuant to clause 17.11(c); or
 - (ii) the previously elected chairperson is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act, the members of the committee present may elect one of their number to be chairperson of the meeting.

- (e) A committee may meet and adjourn as it thinks fit unless otherwise directed by the Directors.

- (f) Questions arising at a meeting of a committee must be determined by a majority of votes of the members of the committee present and voting.
- (g) In the case of an equality of votes, the chairperson has a casting vote, in addition to any vote the chairperson has in the chairperson's capacity as a member of the committee (if any).

17.12. Acts of Directors valid despite defective appointment

Any act done at any meeting of the Directors or of a Committee of Directors by any person acting as a Director is, although it is later discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any such Director or that the Director was disqualified, is valid as if the Director had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a Director or to be a member of the Committee.

18. Alternate Directors
